LOVE IS IN THE AIR

Tapas and cocktails accompany pastel-painted skies during a sunset cruise with Bungalows Key Largo.

Key Largo FLORIDA

Find Keys charm and all-inclusive convenience at Bungalows Key Largo, a 21-plus resort that prioritizes quality time with amenities like a full-service water-sports hut, themed parties and an outdoor shower and soaking tub in each of its 135 rooms. Add-ons are all about the water: Think snorkeling, sunset cruising and thrilling seaplane island-hopping.

Vancouver Island CANADA

Vancouver Island's raw beauty captivates visitors, who can steal away to one of Clayoquot Wilderness Lodge's lavish waterfront tents and soar over Clayoquot Sound in a helicopter. Or book the three-night Winter Storm Watching package at Wickaninnish Inn to sip hot chocolate by the fireplace after witnessing the power of nature on full display.

Poconos PENNSYLVANIA

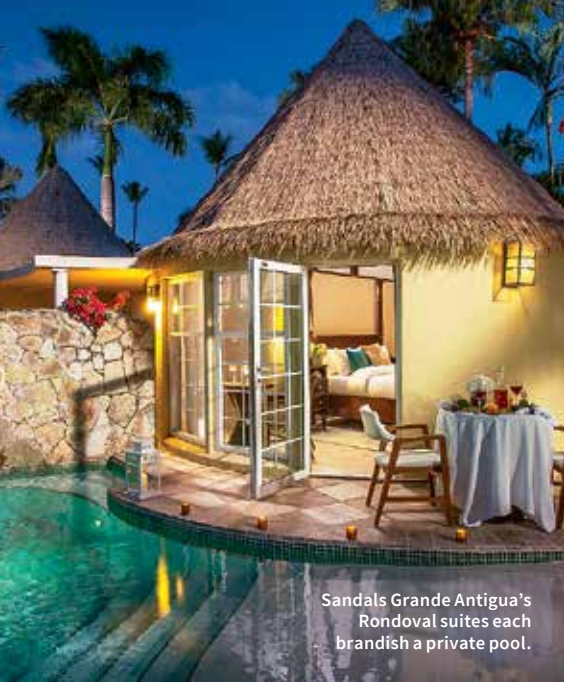

Limited to guests age 16 and older, the all-inclusive Lodge at Woodloch caters to couples with activities like aquatic pole-dancing classes and Perfectly Paired spa treatments. Hold hands along the area's hiking trails, or rent a double kayak to paddle on Lake Wallenpaupack. Close out the day with cocktails around the FireCircle patio back at the lodge.

Crater Lake National Park OREGON

Remote and awe-inspiring, the country's deepest lake is best suited for soul mates looking to relate. Grab a picnic lunch from the Rim Village Café, then hike down the Cleetwood Cove Trail to take an invigorating plunge into the 55-degree water. Come evening, cozy up with Oregon wine on the rocking chairs of Crater Lake Lodge's lakeview terrace.

Barnard VERMONT

Reawaken your inner child at adults-only Twin Farms, a lush all-inclusive with activities like ax throwing, canoeing, lawn games and splashing in Copper Pond. The property's cuisine and mood change with the seasons; mid-September through October, the foothills of the Green Mountains light up with red, gold and orange foliage.

Maui HAWAII

The lush, gorgeous Valley Isle has a long-held reputation as one of the world's most romantic locales. Every suite at adults-only Hotel Wailea is outfitted with a deep soaking tub and private lanai. Greet the sunrise on Haleakala volcano, attend the Old Lahaina Luau, and encounter majestic waterfalls and natural pools along the Road to Hana.

Canyon Point UTAH

Seamlessly built into the dramatic landscape of the Colorado Plateau, Amangiri sets the standard for desert luxury. Native American guides lead tours of the area's slot canyons and Monument Valley Tribal Park; the Grand Canyon, Zion and Bryce Canyon are all nearby as well. Night brings unrivaled stargazing and Navajo storytelling by the fire.

Antigua CARIBBEAN

Beach-loving duos will find 365 sublime options on this eastern

Caribbean island. On Dickenson Bay, adults-only Sandals Grande Antigua tempts guests with all-inclusive pricing, butler-serviced pool suites and nightly entertainment. Or choose Cocobay Resort, another adults-only all-inclusive offering indulgences like a floating breakfast in your private pool.

Los Cabos MEXICO

Desert meets beach in the sister resort towns of Cabo San Lucas and San Jose del Cabo. In the latter, adult-only, all-inclusive Marquis Los Cabos entertains guests with activities like tequila tastings and dance lessons, as well as boat expeditions to UNESCO-listed Espiritu Santo National Park. Splurge on a resort photo session for keepsake pictures of your tête-à-tête.

Napa Valley CALIFORNIA

The dreamiest address in California's favorite wine region is adults-only Auberge du Soleil, with just 50 sun-kissed rooms. Work with the resort's concierge to arrange customized winery tours, tastings and cycling along the Napa Valley Vine Trail, or take in vineyard views from a hot-air balloon. A multicourse prix fixe dinner at The Restaurant is a must.

Hudson Valley NEW YORK

The Hudson Valley's leafy scenery attracted robber barons like Jay Gould and John D. Rockefeller; live like them at Glenmere, a Gilded Age mansion-turned-18-and-up hotel in Chester. Sumptuous suites have apt names like Astor and Duchess, while dinners in the estate's antique-laden Supper Room feature the region's famous local produce.

Bitterroot Valley MONTANA

Rocky Mountain ruggedness marries five-star service at Triple Creek Ranch, an adult-only all-inclusive where summers bring horseback riding and archery, while winters usher in snowshoeing and dog sledding. Get hands-on with fly-fishing or frontier-skill sessions, then don your finest Western wear for a gourmet dinner paired with sommelier-suggested wine.
